

Table of contents

Before you start reading - important assumptions 6

1 Introduction 7

2 About the need (or not) to have a strategy 9

- Do you need a strategy? 10
- Does my business need a strategy? 11

3 The hoshin kanri method 13

- What is hoshin kanri? 14
- What does the hoshin kanri process look like? 15

4 Use of tools to support the hoshin kanri process 17

- Creating X-matrix step by step 18
  - Difference between matrix and business objectives 19
  - Three-year matrix objectives 20
  - Annual matrix objectives 22
  - Priority actions 23
  - Setting of indicators and responsibilities 24
    - A few words about indicators 24
    - The way the indicator is recorded in the matrix 24
  - Connections of all elements in the X-matrix 26
- Building a priority action plan 28
  - Additional actions in the matrix - countermeasures 29

- Completion of monthly objectives in the bowling chart 30
  - How do you set a objective for each month? 30
  - Examples of completed priority action plans and bowling charts 31
- Preparation of an action plan from the meeting 33
- Summary - links between all documents 34

5

Step-by-step objective cascading 35

- How do you progressively make an X-matrix for a lower level? 36
- Examples of X-matrix structure / levels 38
- Managing the way we communicate, i.e. how and when to discuss achieving objectives 41
  - Map of review meetings 41
  - Negotiating objectives 43
  - Agenda of the review meeting 43

6

Planning and revising the hoshin kanri process 45

- Planning the hoshin kanri process 46
- Revision of the hoshin kanri process 48
- Example of sequence of activities to create the first version of the matrices X 48

7

How to conduct hoshin kanri workshops step by step? 50

- Part one - business overview 52
- Second part - preparation of the X-matrix 53
- Third part - extra time 54

Summary 55

Appendix 56

- Appendix A X-matrix - large enterprise - example 56
- Appendix B X matrix - medium-sized enterprise - example 57